

Vibratory Grid Activation (Formerly Axiatonal Alignment)

Milwaukee, WI, Sunday, October 29, 2017
Instructor: Sue Hovland

Vibratory Grid Activation

This workshop teaches energy workers a new and powerful way to reconnect with sacred universal grids that relate to the meridian system in the body by tracing & awakening specific lines on the body.

Opening this energy flow promotes spiritual growth, intuition, and synchronicity, as well as benefiting the physical body.

Students will learn the complete technique with detailed handouts as well as receiving the full treatment themselves.

It enhances personal healing and spiritual connection as well as being a very useful technique to help clients.

Sue has been using this approach extensively and successfully in her healing practice, and you will find it very helpful as well.

Testimonial: Cancer clients are amazed with their energy after a session with the Vibratory Grid—a great complement to my practice!

I find the techniques from your Vibratory Grid class so helpful for clients dealing with cancer and associated treatments of chemotherapy and radiation!

As you know, their fields are depleted and their energy so low. Performing Vibratory Grid techniques gives each hope and an unlimited source of energy. They report being amazed after the session! They come in dragging, exhausted, and frightened, then leave feeling energized.

I have treated over 300 cancer clients. Vibratory Grid techniques are a great complement to my healing practice!
